

Sally (Nachman) Van Woert

Year of Induction: 2007

Year of Graduation: 1976

The former Ms. Nachman dominated girl's athletics during her four years at Johnson City High School. She received 16 varsity letters during her career; 4 each in Field Hockey, Volleyball, Basketball, and Softball. She lead her basketball teams to three STAC championships in 1973, 74, and 76. During the 1976 season, Sally set a Section IV record by scoring 43 points in one game. She lead that 1976 team to a perfect record of 18 wins and 0 defeats, and they added a section IV championship to go along with their STAC championship. Sally was named to the All-STAC girls' basketball team in her senior season. She was also All-STAC in softball and field hockey that year. She topped off her high school career by leading the 1976 softball team to a STAC and a Section IV championship. Sally was recognized for her many athletic exploits by being featured on the 'Faces in the Crowd' page in Sports Illustrated magazine. She went on to a very successful college career and she was inducted into the Section IV Athletic Hall of Fame in 1993. Johnson City is proud to recognize Sally Nachman Van Woert as a member of its athletic hall of fame.
